Communal living and pastoral care

Communal living and pastoral care

By following these simple codes of conduct you are sure to avoid tension with your flatmates and will also help make your time with us enjoyable.

Respect

Always treat others as you would like to be treated. Be respectful of each other's differences and lifestyles and talk about any problems openly. Be considerate of each other's living space and let your flatmates know if you are having guests over.

If you are having problems, please contact us.

Noise

Please be mindful of those who are trying to sleep and study and try to avoid doing the following:

- Letting doors slam when entering or leaving
- Talking, shouting or laughing loudly, especially in corridors and communal areas
- Loud music
- Any loud noise between 11pm and 8am

Of course we want you to go out and have fun, but remember noise can be really irritating for someone trying to sleep or study.

Food

Food theft can have a damaging effect on relationships within your flat. In the few days following your arrival, agree between yourselves if you will have any communal food items. Remember to ask permission before you borrow anything and check with your flatmates before throwing their food away. Try to avoid buying large quantities of food in one go to make sure everyone has enough storage space.

Keep in contact with people you are familiar with, have familiar things around you and either talk to us or look in to University support services if you are struggling. The UKCISA website has more information on this.

Environmental care

Please help us save energy and water by switching off lights when you aren't using them, using low temperatures on the washing machine and not leaving taps running – these can make all the difference in being environmentally friendly.

At least once a term we will inspect your kitchen and communal areas of your flat.

There may also be bedroom inspections. If the level of cleanliness is unacceptable, we will instruct agency cleaners to clean your flat and you and your flatmates will be responsible for covering the cost.

Top tip: Draw up a cleaning rota early on so everyone knows their responsibilities and your flat remains a pleasant and hygienic place to be. Think about vacuuming, taking the bins out and wiping surfaces.
