Moor Lane Halls and Walker Street

Summer Accommodation

Moor Lane Halls and Walker Street are within a stones throw of each other, just a five minute walk from Preston city centre.

What's nearby?

Preston has strong links to the Industrial Revolution, during which time the small market town transformed into the city it is today.

Despite its growth, Preston still boasts a number of open green spaces, such as Avenham and Miller Parks, and the 160 miles of bridleway that makes up the Guild Wheel.

Preston is Lancashire's premier shopping destination. Here you will find markets selling fresh local produce, independent shops and high street stores.
